

Let us pray:

Loving God, our strength in times of despair, be with all of those affected by the fires in Los Angeles: strengthen the first responders, sustain those who've had to flee, comfort those who have lost their homes and loved ones, and sustain those who aid and comfort those who serve and the displaced. We ask this in the name of Jesus who is our strength and our safe place. Amen.